Wheaton Drives the Enemy Into the Foothills.

SLIGHT RESISTANCE OFFERED BY REBELS

Burned and Abandoned Town of Santa Maria.

American Generals Are Giving the Natives No Rest-Philippine Commission Hears Testimony From Leading Residents, All of Whom Declare People Are Not Fit For Self Government - List of the Killed and Injured.

Manila, April 12, 6:10 p. m .- General Wheaton started at daylight with the Tenth Pennsylvania and the Second Oregon regiments and two guns to drive flank between the railroad and the footor Santa Maria, and had one man sounded. But the enemy builted when shed by the artiflery, and burned and andoned the town of Santa Maria, fig. the vinages beams the retreating force.

Gecasionally a few of the rebels dropped to the rear and fired at the advancing American troops from the jungle, apparent with the idea that this would cheel a clevance and cover the retreat of the implices. But, finding these tactics theffectual, these rebels scrambled after the main body.

The American guard along the rall-road has been materially strengthened, and It is not likely the rebels will succeed in getting in the future to as close quarters as they did yesterday, even if they return from the mountains.

Hawaiian islands and fourteen degrees south of the equator. They lie in an almost direct line between San Francisco and Australia, and slightly south of the direct steamship line connecting the Philippines with the proposed Panama or Nicaraguan interocennic canala. Their special importance, therefore, lies more in their position as coaling and repair stations on these great highways of commerce rather than in their direct commercial value, their population being small and their imports and exports of comparatively little importance.

The group consists of ten inhabited and two uninhabited islands, with an area of 1,700 square miles and an aggregate population, according to intest estimates, of 38,000 people, of which something over 200 are British subjects. 125 Germans, 25 Americans, 25 French and 25 of other nationalities, while the remainder are natives, of the Polynesian race. The bulk of the population is located in the three islands of Upolou being 15,000, in Savail 12,500 and in Tutnia, 3,700.
